A Republican Mess.

Republican politics is getting warm in old Bourbon and the fur or "wool," is liable to fly before the Convention adjourns April 25th, the date it is to be held in this city.

Postmaster J. L. Earlywine, J. D. McClinton, Perry Hutchcraft and A. W. Cottingham seem to be the leaders of the Taft faction and are not leaving a stone unturned to capture the Convention.

The Fairbanks line-up is led by George W. Stuart, Judge H. C. Howard, Assistant Postmaster Carlisle Wilmoth and Reuben Stamps Moore. Geo. W. Stuart is the Fairbanks candidate for Chairman of the County Central Committee. The Taft candidate has not been named up to this time.

It will be seen that Postmaster Earlywine has joined hands with his old enemies, the McClintock crowd, and deserted his old friends, the Stuart and Howard crowd. His Assistant Postmaster, Wilmoth, sticks to the people who stuck to him when the Taft gang was trying to throw him out of office.

Mr. Earlywine also turns down his old benefactor, Senator Bradley, whom he served under as private Secretary, when Bradley was Governor, to join the Roberts and Ernst gang.

The negroes, who are the backbone of the Republican party, are divided. Some are against Taft for the position he took in the Brownsville affair, and others are against Fairbanks because Bradley is for him.

Col. John Jones, the negro leader of Millersburg, says that Bradley killed the County Unit bill and the Millersburg negroes are against anything he is for.

Charges and counter charges are being made and Democrats are looking on at this "parrot and monkey" time that they are having in the ranks of the G. O. P.

DEATHS.

—Miss Ida Groche, known as Sister Gertrude, died at Cardome Convent, near Georgetown, early Friday morning. The news of the passing away of Sister Gertrude was received here with much sorrow by a large circle of friends, Paris being where she was born and reared.

She was thirty-two years of age. About five years ago she entered the cloister at Cardome and became a nun where she was a teacher of music in which art she was accomplished.

She is survived by her father, C. Grosche, of Seima, Ala., formerly of this city, and five brothers, Joseph, Henry, William, Frank and Leo Grosche, all of Bourbon.

The funeral took place in the college chapel at Cardome College near Georgetown yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, the services being conducted by Father Van Dessler. Her six brothers, Joe, Henry, William, Lewis, Frank and Leo, were the pallbearers. The funeral services were public, but the burial was private.

—The funeral services of the late Charlie (Riley) Grannon were held Sunday afternoon at the Catholic church, conducted by Rev. Father Eugene DeBruyne. The large church was filled, many standing and many not being able to get inside. Father DeBruyne delivered an appropriate and earnest funeral address, paying a high tribute to the character of the deceased, speaking in touching words of the love and devotion of the departed son to his mother.

Among those from a distance who attended were the following from Lexington, W. H. and Harry Laudeman, John McLaughlin, Henry Clair, Henry Rhein, Thomas B. Cromwell, Richard Barbee, D. P. Gavlin, George Weeks, Dan Morris, Wallace Muir and George Gregory.

The floral offerings were elaborate, showing the high esteem in which Mr. Grannon was held by a large circle of friends in his home town.

The pallbearers were Messrs. W. H. and Harry Laudeman and John McLaughlin, of Lexington; Dr. John S. Sweeney, of Chicago; John Ireland and Mayor Jas O'Brien, of this city.

—Mrs. Jennie Freeman, of this city, received a telegram Saturday announcing the death of her brother, Albert Barlow, at Rawhide, Nev. Mr. Barlow resided in Cincinnati and was speculating in mining enterprises, and was prospecting at Rawhide, when stricken down with pneumonia.

MATRIMONIAL.

—Miss Louise Bashford, of this city, and Mr. William Burchfield, of Pineville, were united in marriage Saturday at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Ernest Bashford, in East St. Louis, Mo.

The bride is a daughter of the late Allen Bashford and a sister of Mrs. H. A. Power, of this city, and for several years has been a stenographer in a real estate office in Pineville, the home of the bridegroom, who is a son of Dr. Burchfield, a prominent physician. Mr. Burchfield, who represents an Eastern firm as traveling salesman, will leave after the ceremony with his bride on his regular trip through the West.

—Miss Marion Brown, who has been a frequent visitor to Mrs. Mary Ireland Davis in this city, was quietly married on Friday evening at her home on Mt. Auburn, Cincinnati, to Mr. Guy L. Ireland, of New York. They left immediately after the ceremony for San Diego, Cal., their future home.

—Mr. James E. Craven, of this city, and Miss Annie Moran, of Lexington, were united in marriage in Cincinnati on Saturday evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Thomas Moran, and resided in this city until recently. She is a most excellent young woman. The groom is one of Paris' popular young business men.

Its Capacity Defines

The limitation of a thing and establishes its level.

So it is with the tailorsmen that produce the College Brand Clothes. They have developed their capacity by tailoring the finest garments that can be made, that cost as high as thirty-five dollars.

Now then, with that exceptional capacity, is it not logical to suppose that such tailorsmen can and will produce a garment at fifteen or twenty dollars which is a deal better than if their capacity is limited to expensive garments?

Certainly. Furthermore, the garments prove it beyond contention, prove that in fabric, tailoring and style, particularly tailoring and style, College Brand Clothes at any price from fifteen to thirty-five dollars more than justify the charge.

That is why we maintain an exhaustive variety of the College Brand Clothes.

Democrats' Opportunity at Hand.

Not within the past sixteen years has a more propitious opportunity presented itself for the restoration of the Democratic party to power, in State and Nation, than that which presents itself at the present time, is the opinion of the leading politicians of the country.

"Republican leaders in Congress," writes Mr. Stanley from Washington in the Courier-Journal, "make no pretense of concealing their anxiety over the outcome of the national elections next November. It is a common thing to hear Republican members of the House admit that the chances are against the election of a Republican majority in the House next fall. Some Republicans entertain very grave doubts over the presidential election, but console themselves with the hope that the Democrats may do the wrong thing at the right time."

Willson, as a Governor, so far has met the predictions of his enemies and disappointed his friends, and Dictator Bradley is doing his level best to disrupt the G. O. P. in the State; the situation is becoming acute between the Taft and Fairbanks hosts, and the financial depression has gotten in its work to the detriment of the party in power, which is invariably held to accountability by the people for such an occurrence, whether justly responsible or not. So, if the Democratic party can be depended upon to take advantage of the situation and not do the wrong thing at the right time, the country may yet be redeemed.

A Party Calamity.

Will wonders never cease? When you read this from the rank partisan Republican sheet, the Lexington Leader, you will answer never. It is as follows:

"The election of Gov. Bradley to the United States Senate by an unholy alliance was accomplished by the sacrifice of every hope of securing non-partisan registration, election and redistricting laws, and by the practical repudiation of the Republican platform in favor of a uniform county unit bill, and it has wrecked Gov. Willson's administration so far as constructive political legislation is concerned, and opened the way for the rehabilitation of Gov. Beckham on a temperance platform. The United States Senatorship was not worth the price the Republicans of Kentucky paid for it, and we believe the day will come when the election of Senator Bradley will be looked upon as a party calamity."

As Well Abolish State Courts.

The time honored doctrine of States' Rights, received a right severe jolt in the Supreme Court at Washington last week when that august body declared unconstitutional the railroad rate laws passed by the States of North Carolina and Minnesota. The only member of the Court that dissented was Justice Harlan, the Kentuckian.

Several weeks ago there were two suits filed in the Clark Circuit Court against the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad Company and certain of its employees living at Lexington, who were charged with the duty of inspecting and keeping in repair boilers of its engines. These suits were brought by the representatives of an engineer and fireman who were killed by the explosion of a boiler at Colby in Clark county, something more than a year ago. When the attorneys began taking proof preparatory to the trial of these cases they were served with an injunction issued by the United States Court prohibiting them from taking any further steps in the cases in the State Court.

The outcome of this procedure is being watched with interest by the legal fraternity.

If the Federal Court can control cases in the State Courts, the latter had as well be abolished.

The public debt of the United States increased $9,299,591 during March. More bond issues imminent.

The President is said to threaten a veto of the public building bills in order to force Congress to provide for four new battleships.

A Temporary Interest.

Just after the election of 1904 a man who was prominent among the advocates of Mr. Parker's nomination at St. Louis remarked that a great many people who were advocating Mr. Parker's nomination, showed very little interest in the campaign after the nomination. It is true. There are certain financial interests which are always active before the convention they want to dominate both parties and nominate both candidates. After the convention adjourns, they pick out their candidate and proceed to help elect him, ignoring entirely the other candidate, even if they helped to force him upon the convention. That is just the situation at this time. There are certain monopolistic influences that are demanding that the democrats nominate a man friendly to predatory wealth. These men have their representatives in the various states and they are working under hand. When they talk to a man they say: "Of course, we can not prevent instructions, but we can get the right kind of men on the delegation, and then watch our opportunity." These men are speaking in whispers; they are working underground. If they can control the Democratic convention and nominate some one in whom the predatory interests have confidence, they will then feel sure that the democratic party has no chance, and proceed to help the republican candidate.

Can they fool the voters? Not this time. The experience of four years ago has not been forgotten and with that experience fresh in memory, the democrats will put none but the trustworthy on guard. If the democratic voter wants to understand the real purpose of the trust papers, let him compare the eulogies of Judge Parker which appeared before the convention with the denunciations of him that followed. These papers that told what a splendid man he was and how strong the party would be under his leadership turned against him as soon as the campaign opened.

The interest of predatory wealth in the democratic party is only temporary. It is manifested just before the convention because it would cost less to defeat the democratic party in the convention than to defeat it at the polls, and the defeat of the democratic party is the only thing which it desires.

Forcing Legislation.

John Sharp Williams, the Democratic leader, was too much for Payne and Cannon who, he said, resembled "Falstaff" and "Old Man Afraid of his Horses." Mr. Williams declared the Democrats had been held up as filibusters, but he denied that was true. He described the "filibuster" as the man engaged in preventing legislation. "We," he said, amid Democratic applause, "are engaged in the business of trying to force legislation."

Why Not Before Election?

In his letter to the Indiana republican convention wherein he pleaded for postponement of tariff revision until after the presidential election, Vice President Fairbanks said: "We can, however revise schedules as may require revision immediately following the coming election and before the fourth of next March."

Well, why not revise one or two schedules before the election in order to give the people a sample of tariff revision by the republican party?

Why not revise the wood pulp schedule for which revision republican publishers are pleading so earnestly?

Democracy Appeals to Youth.

Democracy appeals to the young because it is the growing doctrine. Behind it are the eternal and irresistible and eternal forces which bring victory to the truth. The young man wants an opportunity. Democracy's aim is justice and the young man's heart responds to democracy's arguments.

We may be on the verge of war with Venezuela, and there is a little war cloud in Manchuria involving this country, Russia, and Japan.

Franklin Will Not Be Present.

Commonwealth's attorney Robert B. Franklin, who was expected to head the protestants before Governor Willson when the executive will here arguments by friends of Caleb Powers and Jim Howard urging their pardon Friday night, wrote a letter to Attorney Sam M. Wilson, of Lexington, of counsel for Powers, notifying him that he will not be present at the hearing.

The letter is as follows: "I am reminded that to-morrow is the day upon which you and your associates, in behalf of Caleb Powers and James B. Howard, will present to Governor Willson petitions for the pardon of Powers and Howard. Since hearing from you and since you last heard from me, I have taken up this matter with my associates, and as Governor Willson has never directly requested the presence of the Commonwealth's representatives we shall not appear before him in connection with the subject matter. You and I know there are few Kentucky men, now petitioning for the pardon of Powers and Howard, who were not for the acquittal of Youtsey, whether guilty or innocent, and for his pardon after conviction by the jury until he testified against his conspirators.

"The most prominent of those now asking pardon for Powers and Howard, in so far as I am informed, were the loudest in denunciation of the prosecution of Youtsey, and in declaring him to be an innocent Sunday school scholar from Cold Springs in Camblel County.

"If Governor Willson's purpose is to determine the guilt or innocence of Caleb Powers or James B. Howard of participation in the assassination of William Goebel, of which they have so often been found guilty by the juries, he should most thoroughly understand all the evidence given to all the juries in all the Goebel assassination trials. "Should he desire to study the matter I shall be glad to present to Governor Willson all the evidence ever taken in these cases for consideration upon his request. Being himself a lawyer, the Governor knows that much of the evidence against James B. Howard is absolutely incompetent as against Caleb Powers and therefore could not have been introduced upon the last trial of Howard. Governor Willson, looking at this matter as a lawyer, will bear in mind that Caleb Powers is indicted as accessory before the fact and therefore what Powers associates in this crime had to say after the actual assassination was not competent evidence against Caleb Powers.

Annual Bible School Convention.

The Bible Schools of the Christian Churches in the Eighth District, composed of the counties Bourbon, Bath, Clark, Harrison, Montgomery and Nicholas, will hold their annual convention in Millersburg on Friday, April 24th. The first session will be a joint one with the C. W. B. M. on Thursday evening, April 23rd.

The convention will close at 4 p. m. Friday. A splendid program, containing the names of many able speakers, is ready for the printer. Let every school send at least one representative besides the Superintendent. Many schools are near enough to send several. Send, at once, a full report of your school work during the year to Bruce Trimble, Mt. Sterling.

The church at Millersburg is planning for a big convention. Don't disappoint them. Those who can go will send their names immediately to Mrs. Oscar Johnson, Millersburg.

Bible School workers should attend, and get information, inspiration and enthusiasm.

How She Kept Her Youth.

Some one once asked a woman how it was she kept her youth so wonderfully. Her hair was snowy white, she was eighty years old, and her energy was waning, but she never impressed one with the idea of age, for her heart was still young in sympathy and interest. And this was her answer: "I know how to forget disagreeable things. I tried to master the art of saying pleasant things. I did not expect too much of my friends. I kept my nerves well in hand and did not allow them to bore other people. I tried to find any work that came to hand congenial. I retained the illusions of my youth, and did not believe 'every man a liar' and every woman spiteful. I did my best to relieve the misery with which I came in contact, and sympathized with the suffering. In fact, I tried to do too others as I would be done by, and you see me in consequence reaping the fruits of happiness and a peaceful old age."

What Is a Man?

"All the constituents of a 150 pound man are contained in 1,200 eggs," said the chemist.

"There is enough gas in a man he went on, "to fill a gasometer of 3,649 cubic feet. There is enough iron to make four nails. There is enough fat to make seventy-five candles and a large cake of soap. There is enough phosphorus to make 8,064 boxes of matches. "There is enough hydrogen in him to fill a balloon and carry him up to the clouds. The remaining constituents of a man could yield if utilized, six cruets of salt, a bowl of sugar, and ten gallons of water."

No wonder the Psalmist said, "I am fearfully and wonderfully made."

"One Touch of Nature Makes the Whole World Kin."

When a rooster finds a big fat worm he calls all the hens in the farm yard to come and share it. A similar trait of human nature is to be observed when a man discovers something exceptionally good—he wants all his friends and neighbors to share the benefits of his discovery. This is the touch of nature that makes the whole world kin. This explains why people who have been cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy write letters to the manufacturers for publication, that others similarly ailing may also use it and obtain relief. Behind every one of these letters is a warm hearted wish of the writer to be of use to someone else. This remedy is for sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

Don't it prove that August Flower has had unflinching success in the cure of indigestion and dyspepsia—the worst enemies of health and happiness? Does it not afford the best evidence that August Flower is a sure specific for all stomach and intestinal disorders?—that it is the best of all liver regulators? —The alumnae of the Millersburg Female College closed its series of lyceum entertainments at the opera house Saturday night with the Italian orchestra concert. The entire series was good and the investment made by holders of season tickets was a profitable one. The entertainment of Saturday night was by far the best, every performer was an artist, every number was enjoyed by all. It was perhaps the best entertainment of the kind ever given here.

YANKEE DOODLE STOCK CO.

—The Yankee Doodle Stock Company opened a three nights' engagement at the Paris Grand last night with a good house. They put on "Anita, the Singing Girl," and it proved more than satisfactory. This is one of the best repertoire companies on the road and the press is high in its praise of them wherever they have appeared. See advertisement in another column.

"BUSTER BROWN" COMING.

—The management of the Paris Grand has secured as its attraction "Buster Brown," the master success of the year in the somewhat overcrowded field of musical comedy. "Buster Brown" needs no introducing in our city, we all know his face—all the children have worn clothes fashioned after his. It needs only be said therefore that this is a third and all new edition of the musical comedy in every feature. The scenery, costumes, music and songs are epic and span with newness, while the cast headed by Jimmie Rosen, the little chap who fairly exudes mirth, is away and ahead of any yet seen we are promised. Buster should be largely welcomed.

Central Kentucky Shriners Organize.

"Oleika Temple of the Mystic Shrine" is the new name selected for the Central Kentucky Shrine at a large and enthusiastic meeting of Shriners Assembled in Masonic Hall, Lexington, Saturday night.

The election of officers was the next order, and the following were selected: W. J. Cardwell, Illustrious Potentate.
John G. Cramer, Chief Rabbat.
G. Allison Holland, Assistant Chief Rabbat.
Charles M. Harris, of Versailles, High Priest and Prophet.
J. T. Jackson, of Georgetown, Oriental Guide.
H. F. Wilkerson, Treasurer.
V. G. Colis, Recorder.
C. A. McMillan, of Paris, First Ceremonial Master.
D. P. Eastin, Second Ceremonial Master.
J. E. Knoke, Director.
R. J. H. Spurr, Marshal.
R. C. Stockton, of Richmond, Captain of the Guard.
Oscar Lyne, Outer Guard.

The officers were distributed to representatives of several Blue Grass cities, Versailles, Georgetown, Paris and Richmond, being represented.

Application will at once be made to the Imperial Potentate of the United States for a dispensation to start to work and it is expected that this will be received in due time to work up a Ceremonial Session for the Fourth of July, at which time a great number of novices will be escorted across the hot sands of the Desert of Lexington.

Among those from Paris who were present were: Chas. R. James, C. A. McMillan, W. M. Hinton, Jr., Talbott Clay, J. Q. Ward and J. H. Ewalt.

For the benefit of those who do not find it convenient to come to the Greenhouse, we will have our wagon in town each Saturday in front of Agricultural Bank, filled with all kinds of fancy and bedding plants, also bulbs.

Lexington Races.
Mr. Ed. McCarney, the hustling advertising man from Lexington, was here several days advertising the Lexington races, which begin April 22nd. Mr. McCarney says Secretary W. R. Groche has everything in readiness to give the people the best racing program that has been given for years in Lexington. He was full of enthusiasm about the races and the excitement could not have sent out a man to boost the spring meeting at Lexington, the hub of the University when it comes to thoroughbred racing.

Going to Try It Once More.
There will be another attempt made tonight to once more organize a Commercial Club in this city, and we truly hope it will be a go. Mr. B. F. Groche has been agitating the question for some time and has secured the promise of a number of our business men to attend a meeting that will be held tonight in the city hall, at 8 o'clock, looking to the organization of a Commercial Club in this city. There is no town in Kentucky that has a live Commercial Club like Paris. No town with more natural advantages, no town with more money. The one thing needed is a hustling Commercial Club, something like the one in Lexington, the best people on live here and if a live, bustling Commercial Club was organized, it would be a great help to the people up, no telling what it would do. Let everybody go to the meeting tonight.

Great Activity.
The greatest one witnessed in Paris for years is to be seen on Cypress street. The cause of such activity is the preparation of beautiful lots for sale. The best residence section of the city will be opened up. High street and a new street from Main street to the city hall will be opened up. These lots will be sold at auction as soon as improvements have been completed. Dr. J. T. Hinton, manager, will give away one lot. Attend the sale and register. DO NOT MISS IT. You may see a lucky person. He will also give away a round trip ticket to Niagara Falls. Watch for the date of sale and be the best ever offered. They are the best ever offered. They are the best ever offered. They are the best ever offered.

Retail Grocers Convention.

From the present outlook Paris will have an overflow of grocers to the Retail Grocers' Convention, which is to be held here April 28 and 29.

The different committees have certainly done everything in their power to have things in good shape for the entertainment of the visiting grocers, the program committee having secured Mr. John A. Gunn, National Secretary of the National Retail Grocers Association, Mayor Grinstead, of Louisville, who has been Chairman of the National Wholesale Grocers Association; Mr. John I. Logan, of Shelbyville, Secretary of the Kentucky Millers Association and Mr. Clay Hunt, of Lexington, to speak during the Convention.

They have also secured Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Long, who the public know will help make the program a success, Foote's band and the Paris male quartette, will assist with the music.

The banquet committee has contracted with the ladies of the Baptist church for the banquet which is a guarantee that there will be plenty to eat and nicely served. The entertainment committee has rented the old Christian church for the purpose of having a pure food show. There will be about thirty displays of fancy groceries to which the public as well as the visiting grocers are invited. This should be well attended by everyone, and will be, as people are always ready to look and eat, especially when it is free.

Blood bay, 16 hands high, 5 years old.

Sired by Chimes 5348, the best son of Electioneer and Beautiful Bells, and the world's greatest sire of extreme speed.

Kentucky Chimes is a brother in blood to The Abbott 2:03½, Shadow Chimes 2:05, The Monk 2:05½, Dandy Chimes 2:07½, Council Chimes 2:07½, Chime Bells 2:09½, Ed Easton 2:09½, etc. Also Dare Devil 2:09, the stallion Mr. Lawson paid $50,000 for.

Kentucky Chimes is a horse of great beauty, speed, style, size and substance; a sensational high actor, and will sire high-class coach horses as well as trotters. It is a well-known fact that the Chimes-Mambrino King family of trotters have produced more 2:10 and 2:15 performers, also more champions on the race track and in the show ring, than any other family known to the trotting horse world; almost every world's record has been held at one time by members of this family, and to-day more world's records are held by them than any other trotting family.

Forest Denmark

This noted sire will make the season of 1908 at my home, on the Harrod's creek pike, 8 miles from Paris and 4 miles from North Middletown, at $20 to Insure a Living Colt.

DESCRIPTION.—Forest Denmark is a solid bay, 16 hands high, has great natural style; carries head and tail high, and is not second to any stallion in Kentucky as a getter of high-priced saddle and harness horses.

He has always been at the head of the stud at Woodford's Stock Farm, Mt. Sterling, Kentucky. I was able to get him from the fact that my father's brood mares are nearly all by him.

Forest Denmark is the sire of the Chancellor that won sixteen blue ties in 1906, also his mate The Cardinal, which team won, single and double, thirty-eight blue ties in 1907. He has sired three other geldings which sold at an average price of $2,821.

The breeders of Bourbon county have never had, and probably never will have again, the opportunity to breed to the equal of Forest Denmark at $20.

TERMS.—Money due as soon as colts come, mare parted with or bred to another horse. Mares from a distance grazed at $3 a month. Every precaution will be taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but will not be responsible for those that occur.

To Insure a Mare in Foal.

Sam'l Clay,

Paris, - - - Kentucky.

WIGGINS is a horse of attractive conformation, 15.3 hands high, full of quality, and with fine feet and legs. In disposition and manners he is perfect. His colts are uniformly good colors and inherit his bold, frictionless way of going. They are generally pure gaited and trot with light shoes and few boots. WIGGINS himself wore a 7-ounce shoe with no boots in front. He was foaled a trotter, and as a yearling trotted a mile over a three-quarter mile track in 2:33½. He took his record when two years old and won five straight stake races and $4,600 that season. Douglas Thomas, his trainer, says he could have trotted a mile over a good track in 2:12. His colts not only trot fast young, but sell for high prices. He was himself a bold finisher and his colts are like him in this respect. For an out-cross for in-bred mares you can't do better than to breed to WIGGINS, though he nicks well with mares of any breeding. No other stallion at the same age has ever accomplished more than WIGGINS. No other stallion of any age ever had three two-year-olds to beat 2:18 trotting in one year. No other stallion ever had seven trotters in 2:20 list at ten years.

LIVE STOCK AND CROP NOTES

—Iowa devotes on an average 4,144,403 acres annually to oats having an average yield of 29.5 bushels per acre, a total of 123,422,880 bushels, worth $35,764,205.00.

—Simon Wiel, of Lexington, bought of Harvey Chenault, of Madison county, sixty 1,525 pound cattle at 6 cents per pound. He also bought 108 head from M. C. Covington; 130 head from W. H. Parker at 6 cents, and eighty-five from Judge A. R. Burnam, paying 9 cents per pound.

—Auctioneer A. T. Forsyth reports: At the sale Friday of personality of Thos. Berry, colored, on Cane Ridge, the following prices were realized:

Horses $40 to $50; cows, $35 to $50; calves, $15 to $18; sows, $5 to $10; shoats, $2 to $5; corn, $3.05 to $3.12 per barrel; hams, 12½ cents; shoulders, 11 cents; sides 13 cents; lard 12 cents; chickens, 42 cents each. Rainy day; only fair crowd.

—A. G. Jones, of North Middletown, Ky., sold to the United States Government last week, the saddle bred mare "Barthenia McCord" by Chester Dare, dam by Peavine, and in foal to Bourbon King, for $1,000. It seems that this cross of the Denmark mares on the Harrison Chief family is as popular with "Uncle Sam" as with others.

—High prices generally prevailed at the sale of the land and personality of the late R. P. Barnett Thursday. As stated in last issue the 175 acres brought $130 per acre, but we failed to give report of the sale of the personality, which was as follows:

A pair of mules sold for $421 and another pair for $415. Twenty-six head of yearling cattle sold for $32.50 per head, while milch cows brought from $30 to $47 per head. Corn in the crib sold at from $2.50 to $3.75 per barrel and hay at $9.50 per ton. Farm implements brought good prices, while hams sold at 17 cents per pound, shoulders at 11 cents, bacon sides at 11½ cents and lard at 12 cents per pound. The crowd was large and bidding spirited.

Kentuckian Hung in Virginia.

Leo C. Thurman, of West Point, Ky., was hanged at Norfolk, Va., Friday, for the murder on February 1, 1906, of Walter P. Dolson, of Michigan, his roommate, whose body he packed in a trunk and then fled, being captured eighteen months later at Van Courver, B. C.

The execution was one of the quickest and most successful that ever took place in Virginia. Without hand cuffs and unassisted, Thurman, after drinking a cup of coffee and smoking a cigarette walked from his cell to the gallows in the jail yard.

He asked for time to kneel in silent prayer, and then stepped upon the trap, which was sprung at once. He made no statement further than a declaration that the murder of Dolson was in self defense after great provocation. A letter from Thurman's aged mother in Kentucky was delivered to him by special messenger shortly before the execution, which he answered.

Neighborhood Favorite.

Mrs. E. D. Charles, of Harbor, Maine, speaking of Electric Bitters, says: "It is a neighborhood favorite here with us." It deserves to be a favorite everywhere. It gives quick relief in dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney derangement, malnutrition, nervousness, weakness and general debility. Its action on the blood, as a thorough purifier makes it especially useful as a spring medicine. This grand attractive tonic is sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store, 50 cents.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change. Ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs, so surely these organs are established in health the face and form will witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve tonic adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

JOHNSON AT SHILOH

MINNESOTA EXECUTIVE MAKES
NOTABLE ADDRESS.

QUESTION OF STATE RIGHTS

Does Not Approve of Commonwealths
Being Made Subservient to Inferior Federal Courts—Would Uphold Constitution.

Gov. John A. Johnson of Minnesota delivered at the dedication of the Minnesota monument on Shiloh battlefield, April 10, an address that will rank as one of the ablest public deliverances of recent times. Spoken on a battlefield that may be taken as the symbol of the great war for the union, the governor took occasion to tell of the peril that threatens our federal form of government. This peril was emphasized by the recent decision of the supreme court in the railway cases going up from Minnesota and North Carolina, which practically makes the state governments subservient to the inferior federal courts. The significance of these decisions is widely understood, and they have given rise to a general discussion of the question of the rights of the states, and Gov. Johnson's speech will rank as an important contribution to that discussion. The dedicatory address in part follows:

Representing the people of the commonwealth of Minnesota, we are assembled on one of the historic battlefields of the civil war to pay our tribute of respect and affection to the memory of the sons of Minnesota who here yielded up their lives that this might continue to be a united nation. Their sacrifice was not for personal gain, but was in response to duty, and a contribution to the civilization of the age, and for the purpose of perpetuating the institution of human liberty.

I appreciate that nothing which I can say will add to or detract from the glory of their achievement, which in itself is an enduring monument to the patriotism and heroism of the American soldier. Their sacrifice, however, was not different from that which has been made throughout all of the ages by those lovers of liberty who believe in a government which might give to all the people the right to life, liberty and property. The love of liberty was not born in this country of ours; it was cradled along the Danube and about the shores of the Baltic, even when Rome had reached the limit of her imperial grandeur. Increasing in intensity with the passing of the centuries, it found its highest expression in the older countries in the great English charter of civil rights, which forever guaranteed to the people of that land immunity from the despotism of those who claimed to rule by virtue of Divine right.

One hundred and thirty-two years ago the great contest of humanity was transferred from the old world to the new, and here, because of the isolation of this country, because of the high character of the man who espoused the cause of liberty, and because of the signal victory achieved by them in that struggle, an opportunity was afforded to crystallize into written law the aspirations of the patriots of all the ages. The men who built the foundations of this government were those who had submitted to the supreme test of patriotism, for those who inspired the constitution of the United States were the same who and pledged their lives, their properties and their sacred honor to the cause of independence.

While the primary object of a written constitution is to define governmental powers, and to limit governmental departments, the overwhelming necessity for such an instrument is to prevent insidious encroachments upon the rights of the individual citizen, both from those in office and from those who by reason of their wealth and power have an influence far greater than that possessed by the average citizen. And so the constitution of the United States was regarded by its framers as an instrument of the most sacred import, an alteration of which could only be made by the people themselves in whom all ultimate power is vested, and then only after the fullest discussion and widest publicity.

Under the beneficent government so established the nation has prospered and the people are happy. One great cloud came upon the nation in the form of an awful civil war, in which two sections of the country were in conflict with each other. The heroes who rest here gave their lives that this nation might be maintained as it came from our forefathers. On another battlefield of that war, Abraham Lincoln said: "It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated to the unfinished work they have thus far so nobly carried on. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us; that from these honored dead we take increased devotion for that cause for which they here gave the last full measure of devotion; that we highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that the nation shall, under God, have a new birth of freedom, and that the government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

Our concern is not of the past, nor wholly with the present, but much with the future. If the destiny of the republic is in the hands of the American of to-day, then it becomes him to be guided and governed only by patriotic impulse and the desire to do that which will most largely contribute to the permanency of republican institutions. Advancing our civilization so that we will not, by recognizing the false claims of selfish interests, and forgetting the American maxim that our object should be to attain the greatest good for the greatest number, incur the penalty which other people have paid, rather let us hold ever in mind that those who framed our government believed in the equality of the people and that the chief aim of government is to maintain that equality.

Under our system of government the nation has reached a material development hitherto unknown. The people have prospered beyond the dreams of those who lived a century ago. But with the development of the country and changes in economic conditions, and particularly with the growth of great private corporations, performing many of the functions of government, has come the necessity for the exercise of strict governmental control, and a rigid enforcement of all the laws enacted to restrain the rich and powerful from encroaching upon the natural and legal rights of the poor and weak.

The constitution of the ancient republic of Rome, which for 500 years had recognized the voice of the people as supreme, was expanded by executive interpretation and contracted by executive administration, until Rome had so completely outgrown its democratic conditions as to become only a tragedy and a tradition. Let us imitate the aid of him on high to preserve us from the errors which ruined Rome, by the avoidance of which America may travel on to that destiny and realize that fulfillment which will be the inspiration of right-thinking men of all ages yet to come.

Our government is divided into three separate and distinct co-ordinate branches: the legislative, the executive and the judicial. Danger will surely come to this republic when any of these departments of government attempt in the slightest degree to usurp the functions of the other. And while now and then it may be that a court of the land, in construing the constitution, may nullify a section of it, I have the faith to feel that the people of the country will rise above the fallibility of judicial tribunals and assert and preserve their own rights. Our duty is not to criticize the executive, the legislature or the judiciary.

Very recently there has come from the highest judicial tribunal in the land a decision of vital interest and concern to the American people, because it has established a principle, as stated by one member of the court, which "would work a radical change in our governmental system and would inaugurate a new era in the American judicial system and in the relations of the national and state governments. It would enable the subordinate federal courts to supervise and control the official action of the states as though they were dependencies or provinces. It would place the states of the union in a condition of inferiority never dreamed of when the constitution was adopted or when the eleventh amendment was made a part of the supreme law of the land." If this is the result of this decision, it is, to my mind, one of the unhappy incidents in the history of our republic, because the very theory of our government is based upon the right of the states to control absolutely their own domestic affairs.

If, then, our whole system of government is changed, have we not only retarded the progress of the republic, but have we not gone back a century toward a centralized form of government which is not to the advantage of the people? What this government needs is not more power. What it needs to-day is to so distribute the privileges under the government that all citizens will have equal opportunity. America has been called the land of opportunity. But American opportunity should not mean a granting of special privileges to any class, but should afford all alike the means for culture, education, prosperity and contentment.

For nearly a century and a half America has presented to the world the spectacle of a happy, prosperous and intelligent people, maintaining a pure democracy founded upon their supreme will. The hallmark of a democracy is that the powers of government are close to the people. Throughout the world, wherever democracy is advancing, its progress is marked by a greater measure of self-government to each community. Will the American people turn to the setting rather than the rising sun? Shall we now, because some laws are found irksome by a class and interfere with their selfish aims, commence to deprive our sovereign states of that measure of home rule which until now they have seen fit to reserve to themselves? I cannot believe it. Upon the contrary I believe that the limitations upon state and federal governments, the nice balancing of the powers of each, and of the different departments in each, which have been so efficacious in the past, will be maintained in their full vigor in the future.

Therefore, discharging all of our responsibilities as citizens of a country, refusing to surrender our rights of citizenship in any degree, let us so live that the heroism exemplified on this and other American battlefields may not be simply a tradition, and the national wisdom of our forefathers a mere legend, but that through us and those to come America will reach her full destiny in the permanent establishment of a perfect union, which shall be not for to-day nor for to-morrow, but forever, and be so established that it will be for all of the people, and that their government shall not perish.

IT SAVED MY LIFE WRITES ECZEMA PATIENT.

Red-Ridden Sufferer Completely
Cured By Use of D. D. D.
External Wash.

"One of the most remarkable Eczema cures recently credited to the well known D. D. D. Prescription has just been recorded in Chicago. Mrs. E. Hegg, 1550 West Madison street, under date of Dec. 9, 1907, writes as follows:

"I suffered three years with Weeping Eczema. It started with a little spot on my knees and spread fast over my whole body. I spent hundreds of dollars and went to every good doctor I heard of, but kept getting worse. Nothing would stop the awful itch and burning. 'I had to stay in bed from May to the middle of July. Then I tried D. D. D. Prescription. This is the 9th of December and I am entirely free from the terrible disease. D. D. D. saved my life.

"When I began this treatment, people were afraid of me I looked so terrible. My husband was the only one who would take care of me. D. D. D. stopped the itch at once so I could sleep, which I had not done before. Then I began to get better fast and now my skin is clear and white, not a spot anywhere."

Just a few drops of D. D. D. Prescription applied to the skin brings relief—nothing to swallow or drink. We vouch for D. D. D. Prescription, also the cleansing D. D. D. Soap, at C. J. Clark & Co.'s, Paris, Ky.

Get a bottle to-day if you have any skin disease. Begin your cure at once.

The Worst Punishment.

In changing the sentence of the negro from hanging to that of spending his life in Boston, Governor Jeff Davis, of Arkansas, patterned something after the case of the darkey in Woodford county, when Ed Marshall, the famous lawyer, told the court that the worst punishment that could be inflicted would be, neither to send the prisoner to the penitentiary or hang him, but to send him back to his master, old Bill Higgins, to spend his days, as that would be nearer hell on earth than any punishment that might be given him.

BAILEY ARKLE.

Taft Had Hearty Welcome.

Fully 3,000 persons, after a day of almost continuous rain, braved slippery streets and faced a drizzling rain at intervals to hear William Howard Taft, Secretary of War, speak at the Hopkin's Theatre Louisville, Friday night. The doors of the theatre were opened shortly after 7 o'clock, and within thirty minutes the building was packed from pit to dome, and 500 or more waited on the outside for the appearance of the great son of Ohio. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, he refused to speak in the open air, and simply showed himself on the improvised stand in front of the theatre.

A Tobacco Neighborhood.

At the warehouse of Booth & Judy in Millersburg 50,000 pounds of the 1907 crop of equity tobacco has been received, and is now being redried preparatory to pricing which will begin in May. Other farmers in the Millersburg district who belong to the equity society are redrying their crops in their own barns, which in the aggregate will increase the total amount of equity tobacco in that district to approximately one million pounds, or 400,000 pounds more than that of the 1906 crop.

The 1906 crop of Equity tobacco in the Millersburg district aggregated 302 hogheads and during the month of February was shipped to Cincinnati where it was stored. Fully one third of the total has been sold, embodied in the sales made by the district board at Winchester and sold at from $9 per hundred for the lowest grade to $30 for selections of fine leaf.

Condemnation Proceeding Ordered.

The Bourbon Fiscal Court met Saturday and instructed County Attorney T. E. Moore, Jr., to institute condemnation proceedings for the use of a rock quarry on the farm of the Chancellor, near Millersburg. The Turnpike Committee of the Fiscal Court desired to make a deal with Mr. Chancellor for the use of the quarry, but the price of $1.50 per rod asked for the rock was considered exorbitant by the committee.
